

Master of Arts (MA) in Applied Child and Adolescent Psychology

Learning Outcomes: Knowledge and Understanding, Cognitive Skills, Practical Skills, Transferable Skills
1. Knowledge and Understanding (outcomes, teaching, assessment):
Outcomes:	Upon completion of this program students should be able to demonstrate: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Critical knowledge and understanding of the core theories in learning, human development and developmental psychopathology 2. Critical knowledge and understanding of evidence-based assessment techniques and interventions at the individual, group and systems levels
2. Cognitive Skills (outcomes, teaching, assessment)
Outcomes	Upon completion of this program students should be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Apply critical and creative thinking, inquiry and scientific approach in research design, analysis and interpretation of findings.
3. Practical Skills (outcomes, teaching, assessment)
Outcomes	Upon completion of this program students should be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Utilize evidence-based assessment techniques and interventions at the individual, group and system levels. 2. Demonstrate multicultural competence in communicating, consulting and working effectively with individuals and families from diverse communities.
4. Transferable Skills (outcomes, teaching, assessment)
Outcomes	Upon completion of this program students should be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Implement core ethical principles underpinning professional practice 2. Apply professional work characteristics including effective oral/written communication and interpersonal skills.